

Time to Set Sail.....

Dear Students,

Are you ready to come and join our 4th grade Regatta? It is time to set sail on your back to school journey. You will be going on some pretty amazing and adventurous voyages here in 4th grade. So get ready to join our classroom lagoon of learning. You will be docked in my homeroom and anchored with me as your captain for reading this year. Mr. Lyons will be your 1st Mate for Math and I will take you on an exciting expedition in Science Mr. Lyons will take your through North Carolina Social Studies.

I am excited about our new year and happy to have you in 4th grade. Remember to pack your sea bag with your supplies, signed papers, homework calendar log, and your completed summer packet tomorrow. I know you are ready to start off on a successful 182 day journey in fourth grade.
